LAA SERVICE AWARDS – 2019

The Lois Parker Trophy– for distinguished service in an administrative function Awarded to Jan Atherton for her sterling work at this year’s Rally in making the arrangements for the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the first strut.

The Frank Hounslow – for service to LAA in engineering awarded to LAA Inspector Roger Benson of Exeter for his assistance with an accident investigation and his effort in researching a related engineering fix.

The President’s Joystick – for services to the Rally awarded to Peter Jeffcote “He’s one of the Rally’s regular early-birds, arriving in time to work on the build-up. He always seems to be in the thick of the action and works hard over the whole week.”

The Pete Clarke – individual major contribution to flight safety’ Awarded to Graham Clark for his series of thought provoking safety articles in the Bristol Strut newsletter.

The Faulkner Bryant – the most active strut or person within the strut system – awarded to Alan Kilbride a coach and class rating instructor, for his encouragement of newly qualified pilots to ‘spread their wings’

The Roderick Turner – person who has contributed most to flying for fun awarded to Dennis Neville for (see below)

Bill Woodhams for a feat of navigation - awarded to Chris Pote for his flight to New Zealand in his homebuilt Eurofox.

Dennis Neville has been a display pilot for many years, initially with The Barnstormers and for the past twenty years as the leader of Captain Neville’s Flying Circus. His work in running the Circus has provided a spectacle to thousands of Airshow attendees at large shows, military families days and even small events as the sole display act. The Circus act recreates the thirties barnstorming shows providing a fun and exciting display. Using classic General Aviation aircraft, all of which are now certified through the LAA
